

THE CENTER

for the Healing Arts & Sciences, PLLC

GROW DEEP. GROW TALL. GROW WITH US.

"The Center for HAS created a profound sense of tranquility, peace, and mindfulness, ensuring the well-being of the individual within it. As you come in, simply take a moment to breathe and refocus. The working environment involves fostering a culture of collaboration, openness, and patient-centered care, promoting continuous learning and professional development."

Job Title: Acupuncture Clinician

Reports To: Business Owners (Leila-Scott Price), Office and Operations Manager

FLSA Status: Exempt

About

The Center for Healing Arts & Sciences is a mind, body, spirit wellness collaborative. Our unique integrative care model combines modern evidence-based practices with the ancient healing wisdom of traditional Chinese medicine, for the health and wellness of the whole being. We provide a safe, inviting place for our Houston community to receive several different styles of mental health treatment, acupuncture, cupping, holistic health and nutrition coaching from caring, licensed professionals.

As an acupuncturist with The Center for HAS, the utmost in patient care is expected - with respect to technical skill as well as bedside manner. The Center prides itself on being a relationship 1st practice which means that active listening and being a trusted care-giver to your patients is of paramount importance. We are a heart-centered practice and aim to help all those we serve find the way back to their own hearts by being in full collaboration with our own.

We also expect our clinicians to be able to work well as a team member. We often collaborate on patient cases with other disciplines within our practice (ie - psychotherapy, holistic health coaching, nutrition, etc.), so there is a need to respect other styles of care as well as learn to work together seamlessly when coordinating care.

Required Professional Qualities

- Exceptional bedside manner: strong ability to build rapport and trust with patients
- Excellent active listening and critical thinking skills; strong judgment and decision-making skills
- Demonstrated ability to manage the administrative details related to building a practice
- Ability to monitor ongoing activities in consideration of changing patient conditions
- Basic understanding of psychology, therapy, and counseling to provide holistic treatment to patients

Education and Experience

- NCCAOM Diplomate of Acupuncture Certification
- Master's degree in Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine required
- Valid, current Acupuncture license recognized by the Texas Medical Board
- Experience with integrative medicine – combining mind, body & spirit wellness
- Strong knowledge of human anatomy
- Strong knowledge of the healing benefits of holistic, integrative well-care

Essential Job Functions:

- Patient care (patient intake, diagnosis, treatment plan-including lifestyle recommendations to help patients achieve optimal results, application of treatment, follow-up)
- General case management (analyze efficacy of treatments, evaluate outcomes, alter treatment plan if necessary, maintain appropriate records of patient care)
- Educates patients on topics such as meditation, ergonomics, stretching, exercise, nutrition, the healing process, breathing, and relaxation techniques
- Administrative duties (scheduling patients before they leave their session with you, receiving payment at end of each session, maintaining patient communication where appropriate and therapeutic to patient, marketing to build practice/self-promotion)
- Follows standard quality, safety, environmental and infection control policies, and procedures and adheres to local, state and federal laws, regulations and statutes
- Monitors stock of supplies and herbs to maintain appropriate levels of products available

Work Environment:

The work environment is typical of a clinical office setting. The employee must be able to:

- Sustain prolonged periods standing
- Must be able to lift up to 15 pounds at a time
- Must have the ability to see up close with or without vision correction
- Must possess the ability to communicate and comprehend information
- Must possess the ability to make precisely coordinated movements of the fingers of one or both hands to grasp, manipulate, or assemble very small objects

Additional Duties / Responsibilities:

This job description is not intended to cover or contain a comprehensive listing of activities, duties or responsibilities that may be required in the course of active participation in the mission of The Center for the Healing Arts & Sciences. Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned to this role, with or without notice. It is expected that the person in this role will accept other duties as assigned throughout the course of employment.

Compensation & Benefits:

- Job Type: Part-time with opportunity to grow into Full-time
- Pay: $40-$50 per hour
- 20% off all in-house services & products

How to apply:

To apply for this position, please email info@thecenterforhas.com with a cover letter attaching your CV or resume, illustrating your former experience/education and a brief description of why you believe you are right for this job. The Center for Healing Arts & Sciences is an equal opportunity employer, and we prioritize culture fit and relationship building. We welcome applications from all qualified individuals who share our values and vision.